The Trigger Valve

The trigger valve is an optional addition to eye and face wash systems. It facilitates easy water control, ensuring safe and effective use. In industrial environments, it plays a crucial role in enabling rapid water flow during emergencies. With its durable structure and practical design, it offers long-lasting performance.